

THE AMERICAN LAW INSTITUTE

ALI & NCSL Roundtable Conference

Current & Possible Legislative Approaches to Restoration of Rights and Opportunities

Washington, DC

Friday, January 12, 2018

10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

AGENDA

- 9:00 AM Coffee and Registration
- 10:00 AM Opening remarks: Richard Revesz, Director of ALI
Stephanie Middleton, Deputy Director, ALI
Susan Frederick, Senior Federal Affairs Counsel, NCSL
- 10:10 – 10:30
1. Background and Context – Margaret Love
  2. The Model Penal Code proposal – Cecelia Klingele
- 10:30 – 11:45
3. Reports from the “Laboratories of Democracy” on legislative approaches to restoration of rights and opportunities
Moderator: U.S. District Judge Paul L. Friedman
    - a) Panel #1: Three approaches to managing criminal records: John Rubin (North Carolina); Andy Fogle (Indiana); Joy Radice (Tennessee)
    - b) Panel #2: Legislative challenges - Tick Segerblom/Nick Anthony (Nevada); Eliza Hersh/Jack Chin (California)
    - c) Panel #3: Forgiving v. Forgetting - Steve Chanenson/Sharon Dietrich (Pennsylvania); John Gleeson/Ethan Fallon (Federal)
- 11:45-12:45
4. Roundtable discussion (moderated by Judge Friedman)
- 12:45 – 1:45 PM Lunch
- 2:00 – 3:15 PM
5. Break-out sessions
    - a) Criminal records management: Should there be a right to be forgotten in American law? – Leaders: Jordan Hyatt and Alessandro Corda
    - b) Institutional competence and capacity: Relief issues for courts, sentencing commissions, administrative agencies, governors, prosecutors, public interest bar – Leaders: John Gleeson and Andy Fogle
    - c) Challenges in the legislative process: What facilitates reform, what obstructs it? (Marijuana decriminalization v. sex offenses) – Leaders: Douglas Berman and Nora Demleitner

3:30-4:30

6. Reports from the break-out sessions

4:30-5:00 PM

7. Recommendations of the Roundtable (moderated by Judge Friedman)